Guided City Tours

Schaffhausen is unique and this in more than one way. The wonderful interplay of medieval facades, the magnificent 171 oriels, the winding alleys, the street cafés and the wonderful shopping opportunities make up the special charm. Anyone who once immerses themselves in the magic of the Munot-city would prefer to stay here forever.

MUSEUM «ALLERHEILIGEN»

The Museum Allerheiligen is one of the great sights of Schaffhausen. In the middle of Schaffhausen's old town – in the former Benedictine monastery of All Saints – Switzerland's most diverse universal museum takes its visitors on a journey through time to past living worlds. Unique exhibits and interactive media stations tell of Ice Age hunters, the heyday of the monastery and Schaffhausen's eventful urban and industrial history. An important art collection shows works from the Renaissance to the present. Archaeological treasures from Mesopotamia to South America are on display in the internationally renowned "Ebnöther" antiquities collection. In addition to the permanent exhibitions, regularly held temporary exhibitions take up current topics. The imposing cathedral, the idyllic herb garden and the largest freely accessible cloister in Switzerland are also part of the overall complex. A visit to the museum always takes place in a special atmosphere.
